

1. What type of material is ejected by the volcano? How does it affect our normal life?

- A: *
- The magma that comes out from a volcano is called lava.
 - The volcano can cause lot of damage, it may effect our lives.
 - The lava flows rapidly from a mountain thereby burning almost everything that comes in its path.
 - Some volcanoes release harmful gases which results health problems.

2. Do people suffer in drought affected areas? How?

- A: *
- The lack of rain and high temperature during drought causes rivers, lakes and streams dry up, resulting in a shortage of drinking water.
 - Animals also need water to survive if there are no ~~drinking~~ drinking water they die.
 - A Drought occurs when there is a lack of rainfall in a particular region.

3. Reverse crossword:-

- A:
- crater: A large hole on the top of a volcanic mountain.
 - Tidal waves: A Giant wave that travels ~~on water~~ hundreds of km's in water.
 - Drought: A long period of time without any water.
 - tsunami: It causes when under water, earthquakes and land slides occur.
 - magma chamber: Reservoir of magma.
 - Lava: The magma that comes out from a volcano, ~~is~~ ~~on~~
 - Hypocenter: A place where an earthquake starts.

4. Mention any ~~two~~ ~~two~~ three effects of an earthquake?

- A: *
- Cracks in grounds.
 - Collapsing of building.
 - Tectonic plates bump.

5. Concept map on Types of Volcanoes?

